REPEAT ANNOUNCEMENTS

WVU's AMERICAN MEDICAL WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION is collecting meaningful items to be donated to local women's shelters. These gifts will go to victims of domestic abuse and homelessness in hopes to make a meaningful impact and brighten someone's day. Items in need include: shampoo, fuzzy socks, books, nail polish, cosmetics, grocery store gift cards, and journals. Donations can be dropped off at the med student lounge or at the student services office until October 8th or made via Venmo @ WVUAMWA. Donations worth $10 are equal to one hour of community service.

OF THE MINDFUL PHYSICIAN will be having representatives from the WVU Collegiate Recovery Program - a resource to help formerly addicted students maintain their commitment to sobriety - come to speak about their experiences with substance abuse and addiction, the face of substance abuse on campuses across the country and its impact on education. Furthermore, they will present the modalities available for recovery by treatment teams and the re-introduction of recovered patients into the education system. We will also be having physicians who deal with substance abuse recovery coming to give their input. Please join us on Sept 13 at 5pm in G119A for what will be an interesting learning experience!
