

MD STUDENT ORGANIZATION ANNOUNCEMENTS & WVU CSL ANNOUNCEMENTS MOTW January 8, 2019

REMEMBER TO RSVP ACCORDINGLY!

CMDA meeting this Wednesday, February 13th at 12 pm in room 1199c (dental conference room), where we will have MS4, Jeff Cannon coming to talk to us! We would love to see you there, please RSVP for food!

Ultrasound Interest Group (USIG) is happy to announce we will be hosting a school wide competition this year Sonolympics at the STEPS Center on March 26th from 6-8 PM. It'll be a fun event to show off your ultrasound skills and a great way to review! We'll be pairing people in groups of 3 so if you have a team in mind make sure to include the names of the other students in the group. If not we can go ahead and pair you up!

REPEAT ANNOUNCEMENTS

SHAPE Meeting with Dr. PS Martin. 2/19 @ 12 pm in Room 1909

SERVICE AND LEARNING ANNOUNCEMENTS

SteppingStones is a Morgantown based non-profit organization that offers year round recreation and social activities for children with disabilities. Miracle League Baseball removes barriers that can keep people with disabilities from enjoying baseball. Game play is on a rubberized surface that accommodates wheelchairs and other assistive devices while helping prevent falls and injuries. The season runs from end of April until end of July. Many volunteers are needed to help make the season run smoothly and to make sure everyone having fun. Below are some of the volunteer positions needed. More detailed information can be found on iServe.wvu.edu.

- Buddies: No baseball knowledge needed. Help in the dugouts putting on helmets, talking to athletes during down times, on the field with verbal cues and whatever the coaches need to help make the game flow smoothly and ensure athletes are having fun.
- Baseball Co-Announcer: Assist Announcer in whatever way needed to make the games run smoothly.
- Baseball Analyst: During the game, work with athletes on the field giving them tips to improve their baseball skills and knowledge.
- Umpires: Baseball background knowledge required.

If you are interested in any of these positions please sign up on iServe.wvu.edu or contact Kim at 304-983-7837 or e-mail abilitywv@hotmail.com. SteppingStones is an official partner of the WVU Center for Service and Learning.

WOMEN & WATER EXHIBIT A visual exhibit of photos, paintings and sculptures, curated by WVU Assistant Professor of Geography, Martina Angela Caretta; Geography MA student, Bethani Turley; Friends of Cheat Executive Director, Amanda Pitzer; and Media and Outreach Specialist, Beth Warnick.

- Exhibit: March 4-April 30, 2019 - Downtown Campus Library Room 1020
- Opening Reception with poetry reading and art performance: March 4, 2019, 5-7pm, Room 1020

Panels:

- Women in Water Careers and Professionalization: March 19, 12-1:30pm, Room 104
- Flint and Charleston: Drinking water pollution and its impact on women's health: March 28, 4-5:30pm, Room 104
- Screening of Short Films by WV Department of Environmental Protection: April 11, 5-6:30 pm, Room 104

Social Media Volunteers are needed for Women & Water Events. Sign-up on iServe.wvu.edu For more information, contact: Sally Deskins, sbdeskins@mail.wvu.edu, 304.293.0369

Empty Bowls Monongalia (EBM) raises money to combat food insecurity in Monongalia County, where more than 16% of our neighbors are food insecure. Last year EBM raised and distributed $140,000 to 23 pantries, meal programs and school backpack programs that submitted grants to EBM. Our 'signature' fundraiser is the annual Soup and Bread Luncheon, this year on Feb 23, 2019. We need MANY volunteers (more than 500) to help on Friday, Feb 22 as well as on Saturday, Feb 24 for a successful Luncheon. Last year we served about 2,000 patrons between 11 am and 2:30 pm. Volunteers are needed at WVU Towers, at Mylan Park, where the Luncheon is held and at several other locations.