

Nield's Notes

May 2025

Hello, Class of 2029.

Congratulations to all recent graduates and upcoming graduates! At this time, everyone should be actively completing the pre-matriculation tasks in the Doctor Is In site in SOLE by the stated deadlines to avoid suspension from clinical care. If you do not yet have access to SOLE, please use the Accepted Students website for information on getting started on your background check and health requirements.

Information about your first medical school assignment:

- Your first medical school assignment will be released on June 2, 2025. *
- The deadline to complete the first assignment is July 22, 2025, at 8 am ET.

* Remember that our Commit to Enroll (CTE) Deadline is May 31, 2025, so we can release the proprietary assignment to our final Class of 2029 members on June 2, 2025. If you do not CTE by our deadline, you will forfeit your seat in the Class of 2029.

Final Webinar - June 25, 3:30 – 4:30 pm ET. Details of your Professional Development Week will be highlighted. Zoom Room: <https://wvumdtv.zoom.us/j/94189081703>

Pre-Matriculation Course - Be sure to visit our Pre-Matriculation Course, available on SOLE. The course includes valuable information to help you smoothly transition to all parts of medical school life... academic, social, well-being, and more.

Culinary and Lifestyle Medicine Track - There are a few open seats in the Culinary and Lifestyle Track! For the application and more information about this incredibly unique program, please visit this link: <https://medicine.wvu.edu/culinary/application/>.

Rural Medicine Track - If you would like to apply, please visit this link: <https://medicine.wvu.edu/rural-track-program/application/>.

E-Pylons Facebook Page - If you have the opportunity, take a look at the heartwarming photos of the WVU School of Medicine Commencement Ceremony and recent student gatherings that are posted on our E-Pylons Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/EPylonsWVUMedicalStudents/>.

Please do not hesitate to contact our Admissions Team if you need our assistance.
